Policy Limitations/Exclusions

Coverage for theft losses pertaining only to jewelry, precious metals and stones, is limited to $2,000 per loss, maximum payout equaling $4,000 for such items during the period of coverage. A $100 deductible applies to all mobile equipment, laptops, tablets, and desktops regardless of which coverage limit/deductible you select. Your policy does not cover the following:

- Financial documents, stock, cash, intellectual property, transportation or other tickets, ingot or bullion, manuscripts or mechanical drawings.
- Mysterious or unexplained disappearance.
- Automobiles, aircraft, motorized vehicles of any kind, including vehicle equipment or accessories.
- Theft from a vehicle, unless signs of forced entry are present.

This is a partial listing of exclusions. Please review the Student Personal Property Certificate Coverage Form on our website for complete policy details.

Insure all you value and get the peace of mind you deserve with Haylor, Freyer & Coon.

Providers for this Plan

Coverage is provided by Hartford, a long-established U.S. company, recognized for its superior financial strength & exceptional customer service. Enrollment, administration and claims services are handled by Haylor, Freyer & Coon Insurance Agency.

As your insurance representative, it is our role to procure insurance proposals on your behalf, to place coverage at your instructions, and provide policy service during the policy term. Insurance companies pay us a commission of sales on policies we place with them. The amount we are paid may vary among the insurers we represent. At your request, we will provide information on the actual compensation we expect to receive, or what we would receive, from the sale of insurance policy(s) to you.
